

Home → Collections → Stetson University

Higher education

Young Musicians Are Invited To Audition

September 6, 1997

The music  department at Daytona Beach Community College is forming a Daytona Beach Youth Orchestra. This new ensemble, under the direction of college faculty member Jonathan May, will serve as a resource for area instrumental programs while offering an ongoing full orchestra experience for students ages 8 to 20.

Auditions are scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. Sept. 11 and 12 in Building 8, Room 219 on the college's Daytona Beach campus, 1200 W. International Speedway Blvd.

May is music director for the Florida Symphony Youth Orchestra, Orlando. He has served on the faculty of universities in Minnesota, Tennessee and Florida and has been a public school music teacher.

This month, he is leading the Florida Symphony Youth Orchestra on a tour of Australia that ends with a performance at the world-famous Sidney Opera House.

For further details about the youth orchestra, call (904) 255-8131, Ext. 3276.